

Student Forms: Request for Additional Test Time - United States Citizen

Last Modified on 12/13/2019 4:29 pm CST

United States/domestic students requesting additional time for testing and exams (due to English as a second language) must complete this form. Once the form is complete, the student will be contacted via email to set up an appointment to discuss their needs and obtain an approval. International students who need more time should complete the International form and/or contact Julie Adler. Students with disabilities who need extended time should contact the Office of Services for Students with Disabilities.
