Summary: Annual reports of a retail distribution organization owned by Eau Claire area farmers and consumers from 1948, 1950, 1953, 1960, 1961, 1962, and 1976.

Biographical / Historical Note

The Consumers Cooperative Association of Eau Claire was founded in 1935 by Eau Claire residents and area farmers. Its first purchase for co-op members was a carload of coal on September 9, 1935. Later ventures included a gas station in 1936, a credit union in 1938 and a coal yard and a bulk plant in 1946. A coop supermarket was in operation by 1953, and a Health Maintenance Organization was incorporated in 1972. Other activities included a summer camp for children and a teen club.

Content Description

The annual reports contain lists of officers, annual financial statements, accounts of the past year's highlights, and histories of the cooperative. Some reports feature photographs of the cooperative's buildings and businesses.
