Historical Note

The Office of Institutional Research at the University of Wisconsin--Eau Claire develops and provides statistical summaries of student, curricular, and personnel characteristics; enrollments; budget information; numerous analytical studies and reports for institutional decision making; maintains historical records of institutional data; maintains and distributes the Factbook and University Policy Book; provides data requested by UW System and external agencies; serves as liaison with UW System for the Central Data Requests (CDR); and conducts institutional research. The office was formerly called The Office of Institutional Studies and The Office of Institutional Planning. The ACT Student Opinion Survey was first administered on the University of Wisconsin--

Eau Claire campus in the 1983-84 academic year.

Content Description

The series contains original questionnaires, narrative summaries, and raw data for each survey administered. The two main surveys are the ACT Student Opinion Survey and the ACT Alumni Outcomes Survey.
