The JCode is the rules and regulations students must abide by while living within University Sponsored housing at UWEC. Outlined within the code is also the sanction system if students are found in violation of a policy. Student receive a hard copy of these policies within the student planner each fall and must sign a form indicating they received and understand the policy.