

Policies: Course and University Withdrawals

Last Modified on 12/13/2019 4:06 pm CST

View Full Policy

Students who wish to drop a full-term course during the first two weeks of classes may do so without their instructors' or advisors' signatures. Undergraduate degree-seeking wishing to withdraw from the University after the start of the term are required to meet with an Advising, Retention & Career Center staff member prior to withdrawing from classes.

Please refer to the undergraduate catalog for withdrawal rules and procedures:
