

Student Forms: Communication and Journalism Internship

Last Modified on 08/05/2019 1:02 pm CDT

Students interested in a Communication and Journalism Internship must complete this form. Applying students must be in or have completed 24 credits in the major to qualify for CJ internship. The number of credits that an internship is worth is dependent upon the hours worked (see the internship guidelines). Permission to enroll in the internship class or have it designated on the transcript is subject to approval by the internship director who will receive this form.
