

Policies: Emeritus/Emerita Status

Last Modified on 03/01/2021 2:11 pm CST

Emeritus/emerita status is an honorary designation conferred upon UW-Eau Claire retirees to recognize their contributions and accomplishments over their university careers. It is available to faculty, academic staff and classified staff provided they meet the eligibility requirements detailed below. Individuals interested in being considered for emeritus/emeriti status are encouraged to review eligibility criteria while investigating retirement options.
